

WOMEN'S BOOST

Support program for prospective female students in electrical engineering and computer science

What does Selectron Systems AG offer?

- Work on Selectron projects during your studies
- Remuneration of CHF 1000 / month
- Coaching during your studies
- Career entry at Selectron after graduation
- Internship offer (also possible for IMS 4th year of apprenticeship)

Selectron Systems AG in Lyss

Looking to the future, we are already developing reliable hardware and flexible software for automated, digital and safe rail vehicles. We focus on our customers and their ideas and use proven methods and processes to make our contribution to the secure networking of the world.

Who can apply?

Women who are starting a degree in electrical engineering or computer science at a Swiss university or university of applied sciences.

Where can I apply?

Daniel Moser, Team Leader HR, is looking forward to receiving your complete application documents by e-mail: jobs@selectron.ch

SELECTRON